

I am a private citizen very much enjoying the no call law. I would like to propose that in order for banks or any business to call me at home, I would have to sign a permission to call list; otherwise I am still not to be called.